

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

Rob Harryman

Managing Director, No Square Theatre

949-416-4163 lagunarob@outlook.com

Website: nosquare.org

Cast of "Matilda, the Musical" with Theatre on the Spectrum audience at No Square Theatre

No Square Theatre receives Festival of Arts grant

LAGUNA BEACH, CA – May 26, 2023 – No Square Theatre, Laguna's local community theater, has received a $7000 grant from the FOA Foundation. This gift will help continue support for No Square's Theatre on the Spectrum program which presents adapted sensory-friendly performances for individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorder and other developmental disabilities. Theatre on the Spectrum was launched in 2022 and, in its inaugural year, received a Laguna Beach Arts Alliance Art Star Awards nomination for Best Arts Program.

No Square Theatre, a non-profit organization, provides performance opportunities and theatrical experience to local amateur performers, directors, and technical staff of all ages. In addition, No Square holds workshops designed for a range of ages, talents, and experiences. A typical season includes plays, musicals, concerts, and the popular musical parody of local life, LAGUNATICS which recently celebrated its 30th annual Roast of the Coast at the Forum Theatre.

No Square Theatre is located in Historic Legion Hall, 384 Legion Street, Laguna Beach.

No Square Theatre is generously sponsored by The Lodging Establishments & City of Laguna Beach, Patrick Quilter, Dorene & Lee Butler Family Foundation, Yvonne & John Browning, Chris Quilter, Jon Cobain, Hall Charitable Foundation, Goldstein Family Fund, and the FOA Foundation.

For additional information on events, auditions, classes, and to purchase tickets, visit the website at nosquare.org

###